2009 Camp Theme: Rebuild, Revitalize, Reinvent

The theme this year is centered on the need for a strong service agenda in Michigan. Presentations should focus on students as a solution in ensuring Michigan's success and rebirth. Please link proposals to the topic of Camp as much as possible. Presentations that do not link to the theme should be discussed with MCC staff prior to submission.

Service Leadership Camp Goals

This weekend will give students the opportunity to enhance their understanding of the principles of good practice for community service/service-learning movement, engage in thoughtful action, and explore their roles as active and engaged citizens in a democracy. More specifically, the Michigan Campus Compact Service Leadership Camp:

- Provides an environment and opportunity for team-building within campus teams;
- Encourages informal networking and coalition-building among those with a common interest in community service and civic engagement on their campuses and across the state;
- Assists teams in meeting their specific needs during “team time.” This time can be used for creating an action plan for the year to come, program planning, organizational development, and more.;
- Explores important components of service/service-learning, civic responsibility and leadership through interactive workshop sessions.

Why Present?

- Presenters receive 25% off their registration for Service Leadership Camp (limited to 2 presenters per session)
- Connect with others
- Experience/challenge yourself
- Share good ideas and best practices
- Resume building
- Facilitate personal learning
- Get more involved with Camp
